

CHÂTEAU TOUR CHAPOUX

BORDEAUX 2018

The property has an extraordinary history, starting from the thirteenth century, when the Knights of St. John of Jerusalem were founded by a commander. These soldier-monks were known as fine wine connoisseurs. We can therefore assume that they chose to grow vines in these places after finding that the terroir had special qualities. Nothing remains of the medieval buildings, but the current owner, Claude Comin, heir to a long line of winemakers that goes back to 1884, has lovingly restored the home of the eighteenth century. He also doubled the size of the property since 1968 and created a modern winery. Many medals have been awarded for many years to this area, including to Claude Comin and his wife's, which property has been owned by the same family for two centuries, handed down from generation to generation.

Tasting

An intense, purple colour.
A bouquet combining notes of candied fruits, chalk and wild mint.
Compact and full-bodied on the palate.
A generous wine where the very ripe Merlot brings opulence and density.
An exceptional Bordeaux !

Food pairing

Perfect with red meat and cheese.
