Vineyard:

Organically grown grapes nurtured in the hills just west of Spain's Mediterranean coast near Valencia.

Vinification:

White wine elaborated with classical Airen and Macabeo grapes, concentrated must and gasified.

Terroir:

Clayish sandy, deep profile soil.

Training system:

Cordon trained with espalier technique.

Tasting Notes:

Straw color. Bright, yeasty, earthy aromas of citrus cream, melon rind, and garden patch with a supple, crisp, effervescent, dry-yet-fruity light-to-medium body and a silky, crisp green apple and lemon finish with no oak. A well made and refreshing sparkler.

Two of the great merits of sparkling wine is its ability to cleanse the palate and to match up against a wide variety of foods. Even in this version's softer and gentler, there is a citric tartness that proves this is a great foil for seafood and even fried foods. Drink soon.
