Vineyard:

Organically grown grapes nurtured in the hills just west of Spain's Mediterranean coast near Valencia.

Vinification:

Rose wine elaborated with Bobal grapes, concentrated must and gasified.

Terroir:

Clayish sandy, deep profile soil.

Training system:

Cordon trained with espalier technique.

Tasting Notes:

Bright ruby garnet color. Aromas of berry and cherry, bubble gum dust, pressed linen, and lemon zest and potters clay with an lively, finely carbonated, dry medium-full body and an interesting, breezy finish with cottony, earthy tannins and no oak.

The Bobal grape appears to have more faces than we imagined; here it is as a sparkling wine with dried strawberry notes in the nose and red currants in the mouth. The finish is soft, not sweet, and the gentle character of the wine belies its ability to handle stronger flavors, even grilled fish and chicken. Drink soon.

Enjoy with:

Soft goat cheese, spicy dishes, paella, pork and seafood main courses.

Certification:

Certified by ECOCERT – Spain.

Notes:

Some of the highest tested levels of the natural antioxidant Resveratrol can be found in monovarietal wines from southeast Spain's Bobal grape.
